

	PRINTING INDUSTRIES ALLIANCE
	SMOKING BREAKS SURVEY
	Conducted April 7, 2009
		yes	no	car	designated area	dumpster
1	Length of smoke breaks limited?	13	4
2	Number of smoke breaks limited?	13	4
3	Do they punch in / punch out for smoke breaks?	3	13
4	Are they to smoke in a certain area on the premise?	15		3	11	1
Comments (Listed by question number):
1	need permission to go outside from supervisor and they are monitored so it is not abused
1	not really (would like too but very hard to control
2	2 ten minute breaks per day for all employees (smokers
1	tend to split into 4 five minute breaks)
1	4 companies indicated 2 breaks per day plus lunch
1	production employees allowed 1 ten minute break in 8 hr. day. Break cannot be tacked onto 30 min. lunch.
1	department manager dictates break schedule and frequency
1	no breaks at all, smoking or otherwise. Smoking break only allowed during 45 min. lunch. Smoking must be done before or after work or during lunch.
1	hourly employees given 2 breaks, 7 min. each, scheduled at 10 am and 2 pm.
1	no smoking breaks but one 15 minute "coffee break" in am.
4	Smoking not allowed anywhere on the premises. Smokers need to leave the property to smoke, so breaks tend to be infrequent and usually confined to lunch period. Those that still smoke are looking to quit.
4	No smoking by front entrance where customers come in					